MOTION TO STRIKE DEFENDANT’S CAUSES OF ACTION AND TO DISMISS COUNTER-CLAIM AS A SANCTION FOR FAILURE TO PROSECUTE

This Court previously provided an order that the parties shall provide a list of the names of the causes of action [without discussion] to the Court on or by September 17, 2018, Plaintiff provided his list. Defendant provided a rambling incoherent rant that not only failed to comply with the Court Order to provide a list of causes of action without discussion/elaboration but also failed to put Plaintiff on notice as to what precisely are his causes of action [if any]. Plaintiff moves that Defendant Lindstedt’s filing “Defendant’s Causes of Action” be stricken and that Defendant’s counter-claims, if any, be dismissed for want of prosecution for failure to comply with the Court Order.

The matter truly requires no additional briefing, the Court provided an order that the parties would provide their lists of causes of action without further discussion or elaboration, Lindstedt didn’t comply and elected to file a rambling document in excess of 6 pages, his ranting and raving should be stricken and his causes of action, if any, should be dismissed for want of prosecution.

Respectfully submitted
