

IN THE COURT OF APPEALS ELEVENTH DISTRICT

Defendants-Appellants.

Appellants move to remand pursuant to App.R. 4(B)(2) for the trial court to rule on numerous post-trial motions filed after the appealed judgment of July 1, 2019.

The docket reflects that the following motions remain pending: plaintiff's July 10 motion for prejudgment interest; plaintiff's July 24 motion for attorney fees; plaintiff's July 24 motion for sanctions; and defendants' July 29 motion to set aside judgment or in the alternative for new trial.

The court of appeals is required to remand a matter to the trial court to resolve certain post-judgment filings and stay appellate proceedings. App.R. 4(B)(2).

Thus, it is ordered that appellants' August 7, 2019 motion to remand is granted. These cases are hereby remanded for a period of thirty (30) days from the date of this entry for the sole purpose of ruling on the pending post-judgment motions.

The clerk of courts is instructed to file the record with the court of appeals upon receipt of the trial court's ruling, or within thirty days from the date of this entry, whichever occurs first.

Further, appellants' August 23, 2019 motion to amend their notice of appeal to include transcript information is granted. Appellants are granted leave to file an amended notice within ten (10) days from the date of this entry.
