-----	---------	--	---------	----------------------------------	-------------

171	07/01/19	JOURNAL ENTRY FILED: Defendant Martin Lindstedt's Instant motion for directed verdict, filed on June 25, 2019 is denied.		2.00	2.00

172	07/01/19	JOURNAL ENTRY FILED: At the close of all of the evidence, the court made the following rulings: - As to all properly served parties other than Bryan Reo and Martin Lindstedt, all of the counts were dismissed due to a complete failure to present evidence of their conduct which would allow for recovery.		4.00	4.00
-----	----------	--	--	------	------

-The court granted Defendant Martin Lindstedt's Motion for Directed Verdict as to Plaintiff Bryan Reo's claims for: Intentional Infliction of Emotional Distress as there was no evidence beyond the Plaintiff Reo's own testimony that he had experienced emotional distress due to Defendant Lindstedt's actions. Statutory Criminal Liability as there was a lack of sufficient evidence that a criminal act took place and a lack of proof of injury. Punitive Damages as they are not a separate independent cause of action

-Plaintiff withdrew his claim for Civil Conspiracy.

-The court granted Plaintiff Bryan Reo's Motion for Directed Verdict as to Defendant Martin Lindstedt's counterclaims for: Abuse of Legal Process as there was no evidence that Plaintiff Reo perverted the lawsuit or proceedings to attempt to accomplish an ulterior purpose for which it was not designed and there was no evidence that Defendant Lindstedt was in any way directly damaged by any alleged wrongful use of process. Malicious prosecution as there was no evidence of a malicious filing of a prior lawsuit or proceeding against Defendant Lindstedt by Reo, that any prior filing lacked probable cause, or that Defendant Lindstedt had a seizure of his person or property during the course of the prior lawsuit or proceeding.

CASE NO. 15-CV-001590
Vexatious Litigation as this is not a cause of action. Statutory Criminal Liability as there was a lack of sufficient evidence that a criminal act took place and a lack of proof of injury. Civil Conspiracy due to a lack of proof of that Plaintiff Reo participated in a malicious combination. Spoliation as there was no evidence of a Plaintiff Reo willfully destroying or interfering with evidence for the purpose of disruption Defendant Lindstedt's ability to prove a claim or defense in the pending or probable lawsuit. Tortious Interference with Economic Relations as Plaintiff Reo had a justification or privilege to make complaints to internet service providers. Invasion of Privacy in that there was no evidence of Plaintiff Reo intentionally intruded into the private activities, physically or otherwise, into the private activities, solitude, or seclusion of Defendant Lindstedt or that any intrusion would be highly offensive to a reasonable person. Intentional Infliction of Emotional Distress as there was no evidence that Plaintiff Reo acted in an extreme and outrageous manner, there was no independent third-party evidence of injury to Defendant Lindstedt, and there was no evidence from Defendant Lindstedt of emotional distress

-Defendant Lindstedt's Motion for Mistrial filed on June 26, 2019, is denied.

As to Plaintiff Reo's request for a permanent injunction, that request is denied. Plaintiff Reo failed to show that the injunction is necessary to prevent irreparable harm and that he does not have an adequate remedy at law
