The above captioned case is referred to Magistrate Judge Thomas M. Parker for pretrial supervision. The Magistrate Judge is authorized pursuant to the above provisions to: 1) hold a Case Management Conference and Status Hearing; (2) enter and enforce pretrial orders including, but not limited to, orders pertaining to discovery matters; (3) and sign all stipulated orders. The Magistrate Judge shall also “issue any preliminary orders and conduct any necessary evidentiary hearing or other appropriate proceeding,” Local Rule 72.1, and file with the Court a report containing his/her proposed findings and recommendation for disposition of case-dispositive motions. The Magistrate Judge shall also give due consideration to appointing an attorney from the Court’s Civil Pro Bono panel. The Court reserves the right to rule directly on any matter filed in the within matter.

This case to be returned to this Court when ready for trial unless all parties consent to trial before Magistrate Judge Thomas M. Parker.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
