Pro se Appellant

Appellee hereby moves this Honorable Court to grant an extension of time for the filing of Appellee's Brief, to and including March 6, 2020.

The Appellant filed his brief of assignment of errors in the consolidated appeal on 12/17/2019 and thus Appellee's Brief was originally due on or by 1/6/2020, January 6, 2020. Appellee was granted one extension through to February 5, 2020.

Appellee respectfully requests one additional 30 day extension such that the Appellees Brief will be due on or by 3/6/2020, March 6, 2020. Appellee has thus far only requested one previous extension.

Appellee wishes the Court to note that Appellant Lindstedt has previously requested, and received, two 30 day extensions for his brief. Appellee now respectfully requests a second 30 day extension.

The purpose of the extension request is not delay or for any improper purpose. Appellant's brief is largely incoherent and incomprehensible, is taking Appellee incredible time and effort to decipher, and the trial transcripts from the three-day jury trial are extensive and comprise more than 600 pages. Appellee is also hopeful that this Court may, in the near future, dismiss Appellant's Appeal in its entirety and moot the whole matter, or at least strike the Appellant's Brief and order Appellant to file a comprehensible brief in compliance with the rules, a brief which Appellee would be able to read, understand, and intelligently respond to.

Appellee therefore requests an extension of time to and including March 6, 2020, within which to file Appellee's brief.

RESPECTFULLY SUBMITTED,

X Bryan Reo
