Defendant.)

On April 18, 2021, this Court issued an order adopting the Magistrate Judge’s R&R in part. Doc. 43. Defendant Martin Lindstedt responded by filing a motion to alter judgment (Doc. 46) and an “apology” for the language he used in the motion to alter. Doc. 48.

Rather than address the merits of the matter pending before the Court, Defendant Lindstedt chose to use his filings to once again spew hate-filled rhetoric. The filings are filled with racist, homophobic, and defamatory statements directed at Plaintiff, Plaintiff’s counsel, the undersigned, and numerous other judicial officers in this District. Accordingly, the documents (Docs. 46 and 48) are hereby STRICKEN from the record in this matter.

The Clerk is directed to SEAL the filings to allow them to remain accessible should an appellate court need to review this Court's actions. Defendant Lindstedt is advised that future filings that contain this same rhetoric and that decline to address the merits of any issue pending before the Court will be rejected and/or stricken as appropriate. The continued filing of such documents will be deemed a violation of this Order and subject Defendant Lindstedt to a finding of contempt of Court.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
