PLAINTIFF BRYAN ANTHONY REO'S MOTION TO STRIKE DEFENDANT'S DOCUMENT DOCKET ENTRY 14 DATED 12/30/2019
AND/OR FOR A MORE DEFINITE STATEMENT

NOW COMES Bryan Anthony Reo ("Plaintiff"), pro se, and hereby propounds upon Martin Lindstedt ("Defendant") and this Honorable Court Plaintiff Bryan Anthony Reo's Motion to Strike Defendant's Document Docket Entry 14 Dated 12/30/2019 and/or for a More Definite Statement:

1. For the reasons previously set forth in Plaintiff Bryan Anthony Reo's Brief in Support of Plaintiff's Motion to Strike Defendant's Answer and Counterclaim (Doc. 6), Defendant's Answer and Counterclaim (Doc. 6) and Defendant's "Answer to Bryan Reo's series of ongoing frivolous Motions to Strike, a more definite plain answer against Bryan Reo and Reo Counter-Defendants given as well" (Doc. 14) should be stricken pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 12(f)(2), insofar as Defendant's pleadings contain redundant, immaterial, impertinent, and scandalous matters, Defendant's pleadings were not drawn in conformity with Fed. R. Civ. P. 8(a)(2), 8(b)(1)(A), 8(b)(1)(B), 8(b)(2), (8)(c)(1), and (8)(d)(1), and Defendant is again illegally practicing law on behalf of a corporate entity despite Defendant not being a licensed attorney admitted to practice law before this Court and the being told in other cases to stop practicing law on behalf of corporate entities. (1:19-CV-02103-SO, Doc. 19, PageID ## 195-195) ("But the court grants Plaintiff's Second Motion to the extent it asks the court to strike Defendant's assertion that he represents not only himself but also his Church of Jesus Christ Christian/Aryan Nations of Missouri. Ohio law forbids a non-lawyer like Defendant from representing a corporate entity. See Disciplinary Counsel v. Givens, 832 N.E.2d 1200, 1202 (Ohio 2005).").

2. Defendant engages in unauthorized practice of law by including a corporate entity in the signature block and stating that he is appearing "of and for" the behalf of that corporate entity. He captions the pleading "DEFENDANTS" and references "DEFENDANTS" and ambiguously claims he dropped the corporate entity Church of Jesus Christ Christian Aryan Nations of Missouri from the case but alleges he is appearing "of and for" said entity.

3. Alternatively to the Court striking Defendant's Answer and Counterclaim (Doc. 6), Defendant's Answer and Counterclaim (Doc. 6) and Defendant's "Answer to Bryan Reo's series of ongoing frivolous Motions to Strike, a more definite plain answer against Bryan Reo and Reo Counter-Defendants given as well" (Doc. 14), for the reasons set forth within Plaintiff's previous brief (Doc. 26) and this motion, the Court should order Defendant to provide a more definite statement—pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 12(e)—insofar as both of Defendant's pleadings are vague and ambiguous to such an extent that Plaintiff cannot make sense of Defendant's factual averments, Defendant's affirmative defenses, Defendant's counterclaims, or what appears to be some sort of third-party complaint against third-parties Defendant wants to implead into the instant civil action.

4. Nothing in the Doc. 14 reads like an Answer or a Counterclaim, the title block references Plaintiff as a “Counter-Defendant” but no causes of action are provided, no facts are alleged, no numbered paragraphs are used, no pleading standards are adhered to, no pretense of compliance with Twombly and Iqbal is even attempted, it is a rambling incoherent narrative. It isn’t clear if there are any averments or admissions in the “Answer” portion of the document and it is equally unclear, what, if any, counterclaims are possibly being pled against Plaintiff Bryan Anthony Reo. The document cannot be intelligibly responded to, and is violative of Plaintiff’s due process rights. The document is vague, ambiguous, confusing, and frankly incoherent. Is the Defendant alleging some counterclaim that Plaintiff has to file a timely answer to? It is not clear by any measure.

5. Defendant appears unwilling to conform his pleadings to the standards required by the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure despite his having bragged about being an alleged expert in litigation in the federal courts and his touting his credentials as a litigant in over 40 cases in United States District Courts in Missouri and the 8th Circuit. Defendant appears to be using the instant action as a means to engage in grand-standing, gamesmanship, while filing long-winded incoherent rambling nonsense, that simply baffles and confounds Plaintiff and leaves Plaintiff guessing as to what sort of document Defendant has filed, how it should be viewed, and what if any response might be required. It isn’t clear that Defendant has a counterclaim against Plaintiff, and if a counterclaim exists, the basis and nature is also unclear. At best it seems the Defendant is alleging some sort of conspiracy involving the Federal government, Lake County Ohio, Lake County Court of Common Pleas, Judge Patrick Condon, a half-dozen or so attorneys, and a similarly absurd number of other unrelated third parties. But if this is even being alleged it isn’t clear, and it isn't clear what the nature and basis is. Plaintiff shouldn't have to guess as to what is possibly being pleaded against him. Defendant's documents, docket entry 6 and 14 should be stricken. At this stage Defendant, who has taken multiple chances and been generous given latitude and additional chances by this Court, should simply default Defendant for persistent and willful non-compliance with the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and the orders of this Court.

A claim must be stated with sufficient clarity to enable a court or opposing party to determine whether a claim has been alleged. See Elliott v. Foufas, 867 F.2d 877.880 (5th Cir. 1989).

A district court and opposing parties are not required to sift through pleadings that are essentially incomprehensible. See Old Time Enterprises v. International Coffee Corp., 862 F.2d 1213, 1219 (5th Cir. 1989).

Lindstedt's claims, whatever they are, if indeed there are any, are absurd, patently frivolous, and are pled in an incomprehensible rambling narrative that hints at a conspiracy involving judges, lawyers, the entire Federal government, the state of Ohio, and other irrelevant third parties that Defendant wants to attempt to join.

6. Defendant brags about being a leader in the Ku Klux Klan and ends his rambling nonsense on the fairly low note of threatening a "religious and racial civil war" which he will presumably instigate if he doesn't get his way. It is time for this Court to end Defendant's shenanigans in this case and simply default the Defendant as a sanction.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays that this Honorable Court will:

A. Strike Defendant's Answer and Counterclaim (Doc. 6), Defendant's Answer and Counterclaim (Doc. 6) and Defendant's "Answer to Bryan Reo's series of ongoing frivolous Motions to Strike, a more definite plain answer against Bryan Reo and Reo Counter-Defendants given as well" (Doc. 14), and enter default against Defendant as a sanction due to Defendant's steadfast refusal to stop practicing law on behalf of third-parties and for using virulently offensive language in Defendant's pleading; or

- B. Alternatively order Defendant to provide a more definite statement by requiring Defendant to submit a pleading in conformity with Fed. R. Civ. P. 8; and
- C. Award Plaintiff any and all further relief which is warranted by law or equity.

Respectfully submitted,
