

Exhibit #2

mongrels of all kinds, while completely ignoring his obvious Asian and Khazar heritage. Note the telltale epicanthic folds over his eyes, the reptilian lower eyelids, the raised brow ridge, and the sloped forehead. Did I mention the hooked nose that he attempts to hide with Tegaderm?

Re: The "Mad Dog" Martin Lindstedt Rant Thread

Marty thinks that my receiving a copy of the filing documents from the Ohio court counts as being served a summons!!! LOL what a goof, I haven't been summoned anywhere and a summons from an Ohio court is nothing. An Ohio judge has no say whatsoever regarding me and any order from said court is not enforceable here. I guess Marty thought that I was low on toilet paper because the papers that I received mean NOTHING in Mo. The really funny part is that this imbecile actually repeats and updates his slander against several of us in his court documents, therefore extending any statute of limitations and actually providing me with evidence that I can use in Mo court, because until Marty sues me in Mo court, I'm not being sued. I have not been served with a summons, which under Mo law must be done in person. All I ever got was filing documents from the Ohio court which are nothing but a notification, not a legal summons. Sorry, Marty, but you can gain nothing from me in this silliness, file in a court that has jurisdiction over us, I dare you.
